	Regular Price	Sale Price	Save
North Coast Cabernet	$17.99	$10.96	$7.03
William Hill Estate North Coast Cabernet Sauvignon has a rich palate of dark fruit flavors, with subtle hints of caramel and cocoa. The Sonoma and Napa fruit gave this wine its ripe blackberry and black cherry flavors, while the grapes from Lake and Mendocino brought tremendous structure and presence to the blend. This Cabernet, which was blended with a touch of Merlot to round out the mouthfeel, will reveal more complex layers with time in the bottle.
North Coast Chardonnay	$17.99	$10.96	$7.03
Bright, medium-textured and food-friendly William Hill Estate North Coast Chardonnay offers fruit-forward notes of ripe melon, mandarin orange, peach and pear, underscored by complex notes of citrus blossom and brown spice. Delicately structured, this well-balanced wine has excellent acidity and a creamy mouthfeel
North Coast Pinot Noir	$17.99	$10.96	$7.03
The grapes were allowed more time for flavor development on the vine while still retaining a naturally firm acidity. The 2014 vintage was short because of the warm, dry weather that led to an early harvest. Overall, the grapes from this year translated into ripe fruit flavors and a firm structure in the glass.
North Coast Sauvignon Blanc	$15.99	$10.96	$5.03
intense tropical notes of passion fruit, lychee and ripe grapefruit were abundant from our fruit sourced from the Russian River Valley, while Lake County (a majority of the 2015 blend) gave us lime, lemon zest and appealing minerality.

Inferno

The result is a wine with rich flavor and distinctive attitude. Crafted in California, each batch of Apothic Inferno undergoes a time-intensive, barrel-aging process. The unique character and flavor profiles offer wine enthusiasts the opportunity to discover a bold, new experience. LOUIS M. MARTINI

Gnarly Zinfandel

$49.99	$36.96	$13.03
---------	---------	---------

Andy's Exclusive!! It's a big, deep wine with intense aromas and a fusion of dark fruit flavors, including blackberry reduction and black currant. Those blend with layers of spice notes ranging from fresh black peppercorns to clove. The wine is full-bodied, vibrant and robust, balanced by velvety tannins and distinctive minerality that is characteristic of Monte Rosso's iron-rich volcanic soils. The extraordinary long and luxurious finish adds rich hints of vanilla and molasses. Robert M. Parker Jr. gave this wine 95 points and called it "a full-bodied classic Zinfandel at its very best."

Sonoma Cabernet

$19.99	$13.96	$6.03
---------	---------	--------

Louis M. Martini 2014 Sonoma County Cabernet Sauvignon wine reflects the best of the warm, narrow Dry Creek Valley and the hot yet wind-cooled Alexander Valley. Together, these unique features create a rich, superbly balanced Cabernet Sauvignon with copious yet supple tannins. Those tannins make the young wine approachable but will still give it enough texture to age gracefully. The long, calm growing season, helps create elevated and concentrated flavors that include wild berries, plum, licorice and mocha. The full-bodied and mouth-coating feel on the palate leads to a long, graceful finish with tones of intense fruit, dried herbs and cedar inside firm structure.
